The Council had received two applications for use of Snoxhall Pavilion. Cranes Bar to run a family bar and Little Hearts Nursery to run a Holiday Club in addition to their term time nursery.

The Chairman invited Cllrs C Gould and N Sanctuary to give a synopsis of the individual meetings with the potential hirers and the joint meeting with them. There was a detailed discussion on all points raised by both potential hirers. The Council recognised that it would need to invest in the building to help make the future uses work. The Council agreed to investigate replacing the carpet area with altro flooring.

Cllr G Worthington arrived.

Cllr E Townsend offered to research licensing an outside area for the bar which will be discussed at a future meeting of the Council.

The Council UNANIMOUSLY AGREED:

- To offer Cranes Bar a one year licence agreement on a trial basis with a six month review at which point the licence fee will be reviewed. Licence fee to be paid monthly in advance. Any issues with the bar may lead to termination of the licence. Licence period will be Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday plus club nights.
